VOLUNTEER COMMITTEE UPDATE

The Pine Grove Volunteer Committee met on January 31, 2015 to continue to work on the various projects and proposals regarding this year's upcoming schedule. We currently have 12 weekly mediums and 11 confirmed Saturday workshops. Week 13 and 14 will include 2 or 3 workshops per week, an open poetry reading event as well as an evening where Volunteer Readers (advanced student mediums) will offer readings. The Committee is working feverishly to make this an interesting and successful year at Pine Grove.

There are currently 4 special events scheduled.

Angelina Diana – Opening Day Special Event: Angelina has been a full time medium since 2001. She currently appears monthly on “Better Connecticut” and is featured on WCAP radio in Boston. (No volunteer coverage needed)

Randean Tetu will do a Holographic Healing Concert with her Crystal Bowl.

Ladies Aid Fair with mediums, readings, vendors, etc. is being developed.

Abby Stokes will give a presentation on her new book, “Is This Thing On?” Navigating The Digital World. This workshop is FREE

VOLUNTEERS STILL NEEDED!

We need volunteers to cover workshops during the summer as well as project related work. The responsibility of the Workshop Volunteer is to set up the seating for an event, help the presenter set up, greet attendees, and collect fees. Workshop Volunteers must be members or associate members of Pine Grove. Workshop Volunteers will be able to attend the event for which they volunteer at no charge. If you'd like to cover an event or be involved in a project, email pinegrovevolunteers@gmail.com. Let us know your interests and availability!

PINE GROVE BROCHURE

Individuals, churches, and members are invited to place an ad in the brochure. You can also help by sharing this newsletter with your church members/website/social media page, in a development class. Publicity for the program will be ongoing and we are looking for recommendations of newspapers/periodicals or radio stations that offer free publication to non-profit organizations.
